ANNUAL CONVENTION OF COUNTY TEACHERS

Interesting Program Announced for Session to be Held at Local High School

The San Mateo county teachers' institute will be held in the assembly hall of Sequoia highschool next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The meetings on Monday will be confined to matters pertaining to the schools of the county and the teachers of the various schools will be allowed to discuss the course of study and suggest or order any changes they may desire. The only outside speaker on Monday will be Miss Gretchen Libby, deputy state fish and game commissioner, who will talk about "Our Birds.". In the evening a reception and dance at the Alhambra has been prepared. There will be an excellent program and Mullen's orchestra will furnish the music.

Tuesday, Prof. Chas. E. Rugh of the University of California and Prof. Lewis M. Tefman of Stanford will talk. In the morning the teachers will be divided in sections and in the afternoon the lectures will be before the whole body of teachers. Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the high school Dr. James H. McLaren of Pasadena will lecture. His topic is "The Light of England." Dr. McLaren is a high-priced lecturer and comes with an excellent reputation.

Wednesday, D. R. Jones of the San Francisco Normal school and Charles N. Shane, school probation officer of Oakland will address the teachers. They will both have charge of the section work in the morning and will give general addresses in the afternoon.

An excellent musical program has been prepared and vocal and instrumental solos will intersperse the various exercises. Prof. O. M. Carrington has assumed charge of the musical numbers while all of the arrangements for the reception and dance have been made by a committee consisting of Miss Wolfenden, Miss Glassford and Mr. Meyers.

The local teachers have been delegated to act as a reception committee for the visiting teachers.

All of the sessions are open to the public and everyone will be welcome. The various gentlemen who are to take part are all interesting speakers and will give inspiring as well as able addresses.

SUSPECTED CAR BANDIT PROVES ALIBI; RELEASED.

City Attorney Charles N. Kirkbride of San Mateo, the victim of the Easton street car holdup who has been in the Red Cross hospital since Tuesday with a bullet in the region of his lungs, was operated on Monday, and the physicians announce the attempt to extract the bullet was unsuccessful.

After the operation the physicians held another consultation and it is believed the effort to extract the bullet will be abandoned permanently.

The X-ray failed to locate the bullet, and Attorney Kirkbride is suffering greatly from the effects of the operation. The surgeons probed within an eighth of an inch of the pleural cavity, but were unable to go further in fear of endangering the patient's life.

According to Dr. Baker, the operating surgeon, the bullet might be in the lung. This is considered a dangerous point and any further attempts to locate it might result fatally. Mr. Kirkbride is reported to have again rallied and is improving.

Louis Kirshman, the young man suspected of being the car bandit has established an alibi and was released yesterday on motion of District Attorney Swart.

EIKERENKOTTER DAMAGE SUIT IS COMPROMISED.

The damage suit of Julius Eikerenkotter, former supervisor, for $51,000 against the United Railroads for injuries sustained in April, 1911, was settled Monday, Mr. Eikerenkotter taking $2250. The compromise was effected just after the jury had been selected and the case was about to go to trial.

Eikerenkotter's injuries consisted of a broken leg which was caused by his being struck by one of the company's cars while he was leaving another. After months of treatment Mr. Eikerenkotter is able to get around thought he is still lame. He was represented in the suit by Sullivan, Sullivan & Roche of San Frnacisco and Ross & Ross of this city.

Mrs. C.—Hello! That suit don't fit my husband at all. You must have got some carpenter to cut off the pants; and the coat—

Mr. White (our cashier)—Pardon me, I just recovered my breath. Who was it you wanted?

Mrs. C.—Well, I want Palo Alto 9155 and I'm Mrs. Julius Caesar at Mayfield, and—

Mr. White—Again pardon me, Mrs. Caesar, but this is THE REGENT, 318K—

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

BOOST AND YOU CREATE KNOCK AND YOU INVITE DISASTER.
GET CONFIDENT WITH THE DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION.

John MacBain needs no plea for the united support of the Republicans of the county—of that he is already assured.

After all, it shouldn't be a matter of much surprise that Francis J. Heney is engaged in an attempt to disrupt the Republican party—he has been its opponent all his life.

The Ravenswood Herald is the newest newspaper enterprise of the bay region. The Herald is a six column, eight page paper and according to the verbal debut of the editor, is devoted to the upbuilding of Ravenswood, a new town, which is growing up at the west portals of the big Dumbarton railway bridge across the lower end of San Francisco bay.

A MAN OF THE PEOPLE.

That H. C. Rodgers was given the Republican nomination for Supervisor of the First District by a substantial majority over a field of opponents was not a matter of surprise to those who know the nam, and this is said without the slightest idea of disparagement of the ability of either of the men with whom he contested for the nomination, which at this time seems to be equivalent to an election. From his long residence in this district, Mr. Rodgers is fully conversant with the needs of the county, while the success which he has made in the conduct of his private affairs is a guarantee of his ability to conduct the business of the public.

Reared among the ranks of the mechanic, Mr. Rodgers has long been an ardent worker in the field of organized labor, and he will without doubt receive the support of the working men of the county, As far as his duties to the public will permit, his sympathies will always be with that large element of the community who are compelled to earn their daily bread in the ranks of labor. For the general good of the community it is essential that we should have at least one man of this character on the Board of Supervisors, whose duty it is to legislate for the good of the poor as well as the rich.

AN EXAGGERATED ESTIMATE.

In discussing the results of the recent primary election in this state, the Salinas Index fails to find much in the returns to give color to the claim of the Progressives that the Colonel is the choice of a majority of the Republicans for president and fails to discover any ground for their claim of an "overwhelming majority." As a matter of fact, in the first place, there is nothing to show that a majority of the Republicans voted at the primaries, or even that a majority of the votes cast for the Republican ticket were cast by Republicans.

Backed by the most powerfull political machine ever operated in this state, Govener Johnson and his followers, predicted a clean sweep for the progressives. As far as results affecting the national contest is concerned, we fail to see where they get much comfort from the results. While it is true that they won a sufficient number of assemblymen and senators to cinch their grip on the legislature and to give color to the theft of the Republican party machinery, they failed signally in their attempt to secure a majority of the Congressmen and gave no indication that they would cut much of a figure in national affairs.

Nor is there any special indication that at the November election the vote of California will not be cast for the regular Republican nominee. As the calm and sober second thought of the American people asserts itself and the splendid results of the administration of President Taft is being brought home to them, the tide will turn and the President will receive the support of a majority of the voters of this state.

Marriage Licenses Issued.

O. F. Swan, aged 23 and L. R. Creighton, aged 18, both of South San Francisco.

Lester Narvaez, aged 21 and Mabel Keyes, aged 18, both of Redwood City.

James Vance Mumm, aged 25 and Viola Glenbrook Malchi, aged 23, both of San Francisco.

Hopkins T. Shirley, aged 57, Marysville, and Cora M. Holland, aged 50, El Granada.

County Democrats Organize.

The Democratic county convention held an adjourned session at the courthouse Saturday which was largely attended. The county committee was organized by the election of Albert Mansfield chairman, Chris Stilleson secretary and J. V. Swift treasurer. It was unanimously voted that the chairman in exercising his right to enlarge the committee do so by appointing two or more ladies from each district.

St. Valentine's Guild, an organization for the young girls of St. Peter's church, was formed at a meeting held at the rectory last Saturday afternoon, starting with a membership of fifteen. Miss Irene Davis was selected as director of the work.

JOHN MacBAIN, Republican Candidate for Supervisor, Third District

AN UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY.

Probably at no time in its history has the State of California faced as bright prospects for material advancement as those which are in prospect for the coming four years. With the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, throngs of tourists from not alone all portions of this nation, but from all the civilized countries of the world, will visit the state. Many of them will be seekers for homes in our hospitable climate or for opportunities of business investment.

No portion of the state is better situated to reap the benefit of this influx of visitors than is San Mateo county. If, however, we are to secure the full benefit of this opportunity, we must convince our visitors that this is a community of progress. That we may be assured of the full measure of preparation for this opportunity, it is essential at this time that we have men of the character of John MacBain in the Board of Supervisors. With the advantage of several years experience in the work of the board, he is eminently fitted to undertake the duty of preparing the county for this inspection, and to secure to the tax payres the best returns for their investment. While thoroughly in sympathy with the spirit of progress, he is endowed with sufficient of the element of conservatism to insure a wise economy in the expenditure ofpublic funds. A man of thorough business experience he can be relied upon to give the people the "most of value for their money."

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

One of the strongest arguments against the proposed amendment of Section 7, Article XI of the constitution is that it disturbes the balance of power, and premits the dismemberment of counties. The constitution makes the county the political administrative units, the state's governmental unit. Artical XI, Section 7 of the Constitution reads:

"The several counties as they now exist are hereby recognized as local subdivisions of the state. The codes and general laws make the same recognition of the counties as the units of the state. The present constitution guards against the mutilation of counties and the imparment of the efficiency of county government by specifying that no new county shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than 8,000, neither shall a new county be formed containing a less population than 5,000, nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided." In other words, the state zealously guards the right of local self government.

PESCADERO CORRESPONDENCE

C. H. Widiman, from Gonzales, was here Monday and Tuesday with Mr. E. Eaton, looking after his ranches and timber.

Three threshing machines are here finishing the threshing on C. H. Widiman's ranches.

Frank Sousa and Joe Gomes are here from Newman.

Antone Bennett is having a new saloon built at the Gazos creek.

Frank Williamson and wife are camping up the Gazos creek with A. Ambler and wife. They expect to shoot about two grizzly bears, one deer, some coons and about one wildcat. They think that would give them all the meat they want. They took a 50-pound sack of salt to cure the skins with, and ammunition for Frank's old blunderbuss and Ambler's gattling gun, so look out.

L. Coburn and wife made a flying trip to San Francisco and back Monday.

Frank Brown is here on a visit, after a long absence.

Victor Quincy is back again, after a two weeks' vacation. He visited in Los Angeles and vicinity, also went down to Mexico to see a bullfight, and was at San Diego for a few days as the guest of Dr. Banks, who formerly lived here. He says he had one of the best times of his life on the trip and we believe it, as he looks fine.

J. C. Williamson was in Halfmofn Bay Tuesday.

Bert Reese is digging his potatoes and will have a large crop.

Heald's San Jose Business College is constantly placing its graduates in lucrative positions. Write for a copy of the new prospectus.

WHY SHOULD WE SEEK A CHANGE.

On every hand the demand for reliable labor is today fully as great, if not greater, than the supply. No good man who really wants work and is willing to give an honest return for the wage demanded, need be out of a job. The "want columns" of the press are daily seeking men to whom to give employment, and a reasonable wage is offered. Outside the cities and towns, farmers are looking for reliable help, often pleading that a derth of labor threatens to ruin their crops. On every side there is work awaiting willing hands.

Yet, in spite of these evidences of prosperity, we find a restless element clamoring for a "change." The last time we had a "change" and the Democrats were given control of the affairs of the nation, the man was seeking the job and not the job the man. On every hand industry was paralized and in nearly every city soup-houses were called into existence as the only means of avoiding starvation. This experience of the past should determine the action of the present. By re-electing a Republican president and backing him up with a Republican congress we have an assurance of the continuation of the present prosperity. Why then, should we seek a "change."

RAILWAY OFFICIALS STILL NONCOMMITAL

Development Association Fails to Secure Satisfactory Outline of Rate Schedule.

The first series of conferences to be held with the Southern Pacific Co. looking to an amicable adjustment of the transporation rates on the peninsula was held last Friday between the railroad officials and a committee from the Development Association.

At the conference, held in the office of Attorney C. W. Durbrow, who, with Paul Shoup, was the chief spokesman for the railroad there were present the association's committee, consisting of G. J. McGregor, chairman, W. H. Brown, H. C. Tuchsen, D. G. Doubleday and W. J. Martin, with Rev. W. A. Brewer and L. E. Fuller.

The conference ended without any definite conclusion being obtained as to what future rates on the peninsula will be. As the postponement of the hearing of the rate case before the Railroad Commission had been granted at the request of the Southern Pacific with the promise that within 60 days that they would satisfactorily adjust all of the issues involved, the committee at this conference expected to receive from the corporation officials a formal and specific offer of compromise. This was not forthcoming, the railroad endeavoring to have the committee be the first to lay down their cards for inspection by means of various ingenious arguments. As it was impossible to reach any goal, the conference was closed. Arrangements are now practically completed for a further one at which time the Southern Pacific has promised to submit a definite offer as to rates for the consideration of the committee.

With the commencement of the work of R. M. Morton, the consulting engineer, and Marshal Douglass, the publicity expert, employed by the Board of Supervisors, it is expected that the campaign for good roads will take a boom. R. M. Morton addressed the Advisory Commission on Saturday at which time he stated that the county was to be contemplated on the hill roads which he had been over. He advised the careful consideration of location and grades in order to establish permanent routes and the use of the most durable materials possible in order to reduce the cost of further maintenance. "Don't stretch your mileage at the expense of good construction,", was the way he epitomized the situation.

St Peter's Church Services.

Sunday being the seventh anniversary of the ordination of the priesthood of Rev. D. M. Crabtree, the rector, the occasion will be observed at St. Peter's church with a special musical program at the morning service, which will include an anthem by an augmented choir. Mr. E. J. Hoering, for several years a lay reader and teacher in New Mexico, now entering the Church Divinity School at San Francisco, has been engaged to take charge of the mission at Belmont, which is a part of the jurisdiction of St. Peter's parish. Mr. Hoering will have charge of a class of boys in the Sunday school at St. Peter's church and will assist the choir at the morning service.

The services for tomorrow will be as follows: Holy Eucharist at 7:30 a. m.; matins and sermon at 11 o'clock; vespers and address in the evening at 7:30. The subject of the rector's evening address will be "King Solomon."

HIGH SCHOOL PUBLICATION PROVES SOURCE OF PROFIT

Since 1907 when the highschool paper was founded and managed for the first three issued by James Arnott of Palo Ato, one or more papers annually have been published by the studentbodyz of Sequoia Union High School. Last year it was decided to issue but one number for the year at commencement time, and until the high school becomes larger, that policy will probably be followed mainly for financial reasons With the generous help of advertisers and of students and their friends present at the commencement, there is no reason that the Sequoya may not continue to be a credit to the school and to the community.

The following financial statement of the manager of the commencement number of the Sequoya for May, 1912, may prove of interest

RECEIPTS

| | |
|---|---|
| Advertisements | $ 97 25 |
| Sales | 70 90 |
| Donated from Senior Play | 20 00 |
| | $188 15 |

EXPENDITURES

| | |
|---|---|
| Personal expenses of Manager | $ 5 85 |
| San Jose Printing Co. | 163 70 |
| Manager's fee | 5 00 |
| Balance turned over to S. P. McCrea, Principal | 13 60 |
| | $188 15 |

The high school wishes to thank all who helped to make the commencement number of the Sequoya a success. For the first time since a paper has been issued a balance has been returned in favor of it. The entire issue of two hundred and fifty copies was disposed of long before the demand was supplied, although the price had been raised above that of last year.

Thanks must be given to the advertisers who so generously helped as it is by their aid that thepublication of the Sequoya is made possible. Respectfully.

Roy C. Woodhams, business manager, 1912.

Native Son Answers Death's Call.

J. F. Johnston has received the sad intelligence of the death of his brother, James Johnston, at Salt Lake City last Saturday. The deceased was well known in this city, having been born and raised at Halfmoon Bay. For the past twenty-five years he had be n a resident of Salt Lake City where he followed the business of a mining broker. Some two years ago he met with an accident from which he never fully recovered. The deceased was highly respected and admired by all who knew him. He leaves a widow and two children to mourn him. His boyhood was spent on the coastside where the Johnston family is well known.

PRESIDENT CONSULTS WITH FORMER MENLO RESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23—President Taft conferred during his ride today from Baltimore to Washington about Mexico and Central American affairs with Huntington Wilson, acting secretary of state; W. T. S. Doyle, chief of the Latin-American bureau, and J. R. Clark Jr., solicitor of the State Department. The gravity of the situation in Nicaragua and Mexico was discussed and latest reports on the situation were laid before the President..

The Mr. Doyle above referred to is the youngest son of the late John T. Doyle, at one time one of the foremost lawyers of California. Young Doyle is a constitutional lawyer of national reputation, who for several years has made his home in Washington. He represented his father at the Hague in the Pious Funds cases some years ago and secured a large sum of money for Archbishop Riordan for the Catholic church of this diocese. Mr. Doyle is a graduate of the Georgetown College of Washington and is an intimate friend of President Taft. When the latter, while secretary of war, made his famous trip to the South American republics young Doyle acted as his private secretary and wrote a lengthy report that was submitted to congress. It was an extremely clever document. It is common rumor at the capital that if Mr. Taft is reelected, and there is no doubt but that he will, young Doyle will be appointed assistant secretary of state. The position he now holds is one of prominence and responsibility. John T. Doyle was a college chum of the famous William Tecumseh Sherman, both having attended Georgetown College together, andthe former named his young son after the man who made the famous "march to the sea."

Its lines as laid through Ravenswood run from Mayfield to the factory and waterfront district through the townsite of Ravenswood and thence paralleling the Dumbarton cut-off to Redwood City. The officials claim construction will commence at an early date.—Ravenswood Herald.

Women Work at Night to Finance Roosevelt Campaign.

AWFUL FACTORY CONDITIONS

New York State Investigating Committee Found Pale, Worn Women Working in Twine Manufacturing Concern Owned by the International Harvester Company.

Awful conditions have been found by the state factory investigating committee of New York in the mills of the Osborne Twine company, No. 3, at Auburn, N. Y., owned by the International Harvester company, of which George W. Perkins, chief financial backer of Theodore Roosevelt in his scheme to ruin the Republican party, is a director.

"The appearance of the women workers in this plant," said a member of the committee, "was very disheartening. They were worn and pale and their clothes, faces and hands were covered with oil and hemp cloth. Many of these women, so called, are only children in age and they have to lug huge piles of hemp, weighing 150 pounds each, across the floor, the load in some cases being bigger than the women themselves. In the spinning room, where women are employed alone, to the exclusion of men, who would have to receive higher wages, the clatter of machinery is so frightful that a voice below a shriek cannot be heard. The rooms are dark, though for no necessary cause, and no attempt is made to remove the dust, which is kept in constant motion by the line shaftings despite the requirements of the law. This dust is breathed continuously by the women, many of whom complain of chronic coughs and colds. The dust and dirt are so thick upon the clothes of the girls that at the noon hour—which in many cases consists of but a few minutes—and at the close of the day's or night's labor, the girls have to sweep each other clean with brooms."

It is further stated that the custom of working the women all night is permanent, married women being selected for night work, their hours being from sundown until 6:30 o'clock in the morning. Of 400 women employed in the mills, 200 work all night.

When George W. Perkins was asked by a New York Times reporter for an explanation of the conditions in an establishment of which he is one of the directors, he made, in part, the following remarkable reply: "This night work has been rendered necessary largely because of the government's perfectly unreasonable attitude toward large corporations, which has made it impossible for managers of large concerns to know whether they were on foot or horseback, whether they could expand their plans to keep up with increasing demands or not."

The late Mark Twain in his brightest moments never uttered anything more grimly humorous than the foregoing explanation by George W. Perkins of why the company of which he is a director is working women all night under the frightful conditions disclosed by the New York state factory investigating committee.

Meantime it ought to be of interest to millions of Republicans throughout the United States to know where the money comes from to finance Theodore Roosevelt in his campaign of "rule or ruin."

BOUGHT HIS SOCKS IN SCOTLAND.

Governor Wilson is a free trader and is so recognized by the rank and file of his party. The truth is emphasized a little by the fact that he buys his socks in Scotland.

His apparent indifference to the condition of American laborers may be due to his ability to get along without being obliged to eat bread in the sweat of his brow.

He has been extremely fortunate in this respect. His autocracy has been deeply tinged with aristocracy during his entire career as an educator and dabbler in literature.

He has neither by personal experience or observation acquainted himself with the actual struggles and needs of the ordinary wage earner.

During the trying times that this country was under the blight of free trade in 1894, '95 and '96, Woodrow Wilson was enjoying a liberal income that was in no degree affected by the deplorable conditions surrounding the laborers in this country.

Mr. Wilson is not to be condemned for his good fortune. On the contrary, we should be disposed to congratulate him, but in self interest the less fortunate should protect themselves against the enforcement of his tariff theories and policy, a trial of which has been given more than once with deplorable effect upon the industrial life of this country.—Trenton Gazette.

SENATOR STANFORD AND THE "MOVIES."

The talk was of moving pictures. "Edison may be entitled to the credit of inventing moving pictures," said White Hat Dan McCarthy, "but Senator Stanford had the right idea without knowing it long before Edison began his experiments. About twenty-five years ago Stanford had a dispute with another horseman who laughed when the senator said that at times a trotting horse had all four feet off the ground at once. There was a wager, and Stanford set about proving his case. He hired about twenty-five photographers to come to Palo Alto with shutter cameras. He stationed them at different places along his track and drove a trotting horse past them. They all got pictures of the trotter. When the pictures were developed and printed some of them showed the trotter with all four feet off the ground. Senator Stanford didn't know it, but right there he had hit on the principle of the moving picture."—Town Talk.
